MONDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 12, 1848.

[No. 5865.]

American Citizen. His career of glory through life was unstained by crime; and his death was felt as a loss by every individual of that community, whose political existence was the fruit of his exertions.

THE FAREWELL ADDRESS OF General Washington is the condensed result of long experience, matured reflection and strong anxiety for the permanent prosperity of his country. His advice concerning the great importance of maintaining indissolubly the federal Union; the danger of indulging too much in party feelings; the necessity of supporting public credit at home;—of maintaining public faith in all our transactions with foreign nations; of encouraging foreign intercourse free from foreign attachments;—are so many lessons of prudence which we should do well to bear in constant remembrance. Why therefore should not his legacy of wisdom and affection, be so published, as to admit of being constantly before our eyes? An ornament to our apartments, while it serves as a memento to guide our public feelings, and to manifest that the author lives in our memories?

To make it such, is the aim of the proposed Edition.

The Publishers are determined that the Address shall be printed on paper of the same quality and size as the splendid edition of the Declaration of Independence now engraving, & shall in all respects be a companion worthy that great State paper.

As errors are known from various causes to find their way into the most important writings, the publishers feel it their duty, not only to satisfy themselves, but to satisfy the public, of the authenticity of the copy from which this splendid Edition of the Farewell Address shall be published.

MR. GEORGE BRIDPORT will complete the Design; of which the following is an outline:—The introductory part of the Address, in highly finished ornamental penmanship, shall form the upper part;—the other parts of the plate, shall be appropriate ornaments;—in the centre below shall be engraved, from an historical design for this publication by Mr. Sully the Surrender of the British Army at York-town, October 19, 1781.

The Address itself shall be printed with type of a peculiar and appropriate character, designed for this purpose by Mr. Fairman, and to be cut and cast by our best artists. No more of the type shall be cast than will be necessary to execute this Address; and when it shall be completed, the type and the matrices in which it was cast shall be utterly destroyed; so that no other work shall ever be executed by the same letter which shall have printed the "FAREWELL ADDRESS" of him who lived and died, first in War; first in Peace, and first in the hearts of his Countrymen.

The paper, of the first quality, 36 by 26 inches, will be made by Mr. Amies. The ink shall be carefully prepared, and of the best materials.

The signature of General Washington from which it is proposed to execute a fac simile for this publication, is that which he affixed to the Constitution of the United States, when he signed it as President of the Convention in which it was framed; Thus associating and concentrating some of the greatest events in the life of this great man and in the history of his Country.

The ornamental writing will be designed and executed in the very best manner; the ornamental parts of the design and vignette, will be engraved by G. FAIRMAN; and the Typographical part executed by John Binns. They will take especial care of the execution of their several duties in this respect, and they will call to their aid, all that liberality, zeal and industry can command from the Sciences and Arts, so as to make the "Farewell Address" no mean specimen of the state of the Fine Arts in the United States.

As much progress has already been made in designing and procuring materials for this splendid edition of Gen. Washington's "Farewell Address," it is expected it will be ready for delivery, with the Splendid Edition of the Declaration of Independence, in the month of December next. That the public may have a more perfect view of the design and style of execution, than can be given in a proposal, of this Tribute to the memory of him who was "a Conqueror for the Freedom of his Country! A Legislator for its Security! A Magistrate for its Happiness!" it is not intended to solicit any Subscriptions until the Ornamental parts of the plate shall be executed. It will then be submitted for public inspection and public patronage, at five dollars a Copy, payable on the delivery of the Engraving. Philadelphia, July 31.

We congratulate our fellow citizens upon the laudable efforts which the trustees of the Alexandria Academy are making to place the institution on the respectable footing which its importance demands. It must be the desire of every virtuous citizen to have his offspring instructed in those principles which are essential to his well being, and that at the least expense.—We hope that the committee who, we understand, will in a few days call on their fellow citizens for pecuniary aid, will be received in a manner that will enable the trustees to carry effectually into execution their interesting plan. That the views of the trustees may be fully comprehended, we have published in this day's paper their address, to which we will call the attention of our townsmen.

Millidgeville, Sept. 29.
It appears by the annexed letter from Gen. Gaines to the Governor, that measures have been adopted by the national government for the protection of our southern frontier, against future incursions from the neighboring hostile savages.

HEAD QUARTERS.
Fort Hawkins, Sept. 23.
Sir—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your Excellency's communication of the 22d inst. and in reply have to observe, that I have taken measures to concentrate upon that part of the southern frontier, recently menaced by the savages, such of the disposable regular force of my command as can be most speedily drawn to that point. I have reason to believe this force will reach its destination by the middle of next month, and that it will be sufficient to repel any number of Indian warriors that may be likely to approach that frontier.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your Excellency's obedient servant.
EDMUND P. GAINES.

Copy of a letter from Lieut. Col. Arbuckle, commanding at Fort Gadsden, to the Agent for Indian Affairs, dated 31st of August, 1818.
Sir—Within a few days one hundred and eighty-eight of the hostile Indians, from near Suwannee, surrendered themselves at this post; those with others who have surrendered of late, in all about three hundred. I have ordered into the nation, and to report to you. They are in a most wretched condition, and will be at Fort Gaines about the 16th of next month. I shall make provision for them until the 1st of October, or until I hear from you, or some arrangement is made for them, provided that may be soon. The Indians who lately surrendered, brought with them 29 negroes, men, women and children. Eighteen of them appear to belong to different persons in the Floridas, and eleven are claimed by Indians.

I am sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant.

The editor of the Aurora has received the Correo de Orinoco to the 25th July. The Correo, of July 18, notices the arrival of Admiral Brion with his squadron on the 12th of the month, where he was received with a salvo of artillery. Many thousand stand of arms, several tons of gunpowder and ball, and a complete park of artillery, with its equipage complete, and several manufacturers of arms.

In the admiral's ship also arrived B. Irvine, esq., the official agent of the United States, who, the papers say, is distinguished for his philanthropic and republican principles. A public entertainment was given to B. Irvine, esq., at which the public functionaries attended.

The Correo of the 25th July, says, that the supreme chief, Bolivar, on the part of the government of which he is the supreme chief, received the official agent of North America with the greatest respect, and in behalf of the people, declared the satisfaction which they experienced, on seeing among them in their capital, the official agent of a government and people, for whom they always entertained the most cordial predilection.

Mr. Irvine is represented as replying in a style calculated to impress a belief, that those sentiments were reciprocated by the government of the United States, and presented his credentials.

It is stated that at the entertainment given on the occasion, several toasts were given.

From the National Intelligencer.
We do not know that we can better occupy our editorial head, than by introducing to our readers the following articles, the one exhibiting in a most interesting light the vastness of the yet unexplored regions of the western world, and the other the richness of the fund which the United States possess in their millions of acres of unappropriated territory.

EXPEDITION TO THE YELLOW STONE.
St. Louis, September 4.
On Sunday the 30th inst. a battalion of the rifle regiment, 300 strong, embarked at Belle-Fontaine to ascend the Missouri river to the mouth of the Yellow Stone. The expedition is commanded by Lieut. Col. Talbot Chambers. The captains Martin, Magee and Riley; the lieutenants Shade, Clark, Kavanaugh, Fields, and Francis Smith, go out with their respective companies. It is intended that the expedition shall encamp during the winter at the mouth of the Kansas, and continuing its voyage in the spring, shall reach its point of destination in the course of next summer.

The Yellow Stone enters the Missouri in latitude 48 degrees north; and in longitude 27 degrees west from Washington city. The intended post will be at its mouth. The United States will then have a military establishment one thousand eight hundred miles west of the Mississippi, and nearly one hundred miles further north than the city of Quebec. The officers carry with them the seeds and grains which are expected to thrive in that climate, that the post may have within itself some resource against the failure of contractors. Wheat, rye, barley, oats, are expected to do well there. They attain perfection even at the earl of Selkirk's establishment on Lake Assiniboin, three degrees further north. The Mandan corn will find itself in its own climate at the mouth of the Yellow Stone. In fact all the grains, plants and vegetables which flourish at Quebec or Montreal may be expected to be raised there, as the climate in that interior region of the North American continent is known to be near ten degrees milder than in the same parallel on the Atlantic coast.

Our fellow citizen, Manuel Lisa, so well known for his enterprise, will precede the expedition, to prepare the Indians for its reception. He will quiet their apprehensions by showing the benevolent and humane intentions of the American government; and will silence the British emissaries who shall represent the expedition as an act of war against the Indian nations. The establishment of this post will be an era in the history of the west. It will go to the source and root of the fatal British influence which has for so many years armed the Indian nations against our western frontiers. It carries the arms and power of the United States to the ground which has heretofore been exclusively occupied by the British North West and Hudson's Bay companies, and which has been the true seat of the British power over the Indian mind. Now the American arms and the American policy will be displayed upon the same theatre. The North West and Hudson's Bay companies will be shut out from the commerce of the Missouri and Mississippi Indians; the American traders will penetrate in safety the recesses of the rocky mountains in search of its rich fur; a commerce yielding a million per annum will descend the Missouri; and the Indians finding their wants supplied by American traders, their domestic wars restrained by American policy, will learn to respect the American name.

The name of the Yellow Stone river will hereafter be familiar to the American ear. That a stream of its magnitude should heretofore have been so little known is a proof of the immensity of our country. How little has it been thought that 1800 miles up the Missouri, a river was to be found equal in length and breadth to the Ohio? Yet such is the character of the Yellow Stone, or Roche Jaune, as it was called by the French. One of its branches, the Big Horn, issues from a lake near the Rio del Norte, on the confines of New Mexico, and is navigable for many miles. The Yellow Stone itself issues from a lake in the Rocky mountains. It was descended by Capt. Clark on his return from the Pacific Ocean. He found it deep, rapid, and navigable from the place where he struck it to its mouth, a distance of 850 miles. Below the junction of the Big Horn, the width was usually from 500 to 800 yards, and sometimes a mile. Immense were the herds of buffalo, and other game which ranged upon it. This abundance of game is a proof of the richness of the country. In fact, the traders speak of the face of the country upon the Yellow Stone, the serenity of the climate, the rapidity and clearness of the waters, in terms of admiration.

St. Louis, September 19.
The sales of the United States' Land which commenced in this place last week, will close to day.

In the present hurry and bustle of the land office, the business of which occupies the whole time of eight or ten clerks, it is impossible to ascertain the aggregate amount of sales, but, if we may judge from former sales, the amount cannot fall short of 3,000,000 dollars.

The county of Lawrence certainly bids fair to be one of the first in the territory for wealth and population. The land, that is, choice cotton farms, have been almost invariably purchased by the planter for actual settlement.

Indeed, no other class of purchasers were able to compete with him. We may with truth say, that no visionary speculations have enhanced the value of lands, during these sales, except in one instance, where two hundred and fifty-one dollars per acre were given for half a quarter section, for a town site. Good cotton farms usually sold from forty to an hundred dollars per acre; and the sound judgment of the practical planter will sanction those prices. In a country of so mild and salubrious a climate, with a soil of inexhaustible fertility, producing a sure and very valuable crop, with a certain prospect of such internal improvement in navigation as will facilitate the arrival of its produce in market, and cheapening foreign supplies; it is scarcely possible to overrate the first quality of cotton land. Although much has lately been sold in this town, and much more is ready for market, the supply is not by any means equal to the demand—and land is every day rising in value. [Repub.]

Foreign Articles.

[From London papers received at N. York.] Liverpool, August 23.
United States.—The opposition papers have raised the alarm of a new war with America. It is almost a pity that it has not taken place, to afford them the gratification of going to their old pursuit of predicting shame and discomfiture; and to give them the opportunity of again manifesting their bitter and indomitable hostility to their own country. Government, they tell us, is weak, Pennscola, and, for any thing that yet appears in the contrary, the murder of Arbuthnot and Ambrister, have happily occurred. It is a proof of their moderation, that they have not changed these measures, and with employing Gen. Jackson to execute them. Explanations will, doubtless, be demanded; and we hope, they may be given. If Jackson's conduct has not been authorized, as we are bound to believe, by his government, it will be disavowed; and nothing more will follow. If the government of the U. States pursue a course of ambitious aggression, it must be repressed; but its repression does not necessarily suppose a war with England. They will oppose themselves not so much to England as to associated Europe, and will be expected to be bound by that international law, which alone binds her and every other power to the great family of nations.

Some thousands of quarters of English and foreign wheat are now on board vessels lying in the river Thames; and every grain on its banks, that could be procured, has been taken for the purpose of storing.

Lord Castlereagh will set off in the first week of September, to attend the Congress at Aix-la-Chapelle.

A London paper states, that Lord Ellenborough has nearly recovered from his indisposition; but his Lordship expresses his determination to retire from the fatigues of office.

Mr. Justice Abbott is spoken of as likely to succeed Lord Ellenborough, on the retirement of his Lordship from the Court of King's Bench.

Report says that the Earl of Moira is to be the first Lord of the Admiralty, and the Duke of Wellington, Master-General of the Ordnance.

It is asserted in Paris papers that the opening of the Congress at Aix-la-Chapelle is deferred, and definitively fixed for the 27th of September next. It is conjectured, that the sovereigns, who will assemble in that town, will remain there two or three months.

Algiers, June 17.—The plague continues to prevail in this capital with uncommon variation, that the number of daily deaths has suddenly increased from 20 to 25 to between 40 and 45. In Oran and its territory it is stated to amount to between 100 and 150. In the course of the month of May 1100 individuals were carried off in this city, and the day last seen, a daughter and a sister-in-law.

It is probably owing to some hints indirectly given to this government, that the day has hitherto refused its permission for fitting out private ships of war at usual at this season of the year.

Gibraltar, Aug. 15.—The Spanish surgeon whom we mentioned in our paper of the 25th of last month as having been sent by the Emperor of Morocco to ascertain the nature of the prevailing disease, declares unequivocally, that it is "the Plague of the Levant." In a small village named Marchand, situated N. W. of Tangiers, and consisting of about 300 souls, 49 have already died, and amongst them were three entire families, one consisting of 7, and two of 6 persons each.

The disease has extended itself to four other villages in the neighborhood of Tangiers.—It is said that a fifth part of their population has been swept off.

At a meeting of the trustees of the Alexandria Academy, held on the 21st of August, 1818.—The following address to the citizens of the town, was adopted by the board, and ordered to be published:—

The trustees of the Alexandria Academy, impressed in common with their fellow-citizens with the great and lasting importance of education, especially to a people whose fundamental principles of government are those of equal liberty, justice and order, on the support of which rest all our republican institutions, and from which flow public as well as private happiness, have at different times made various efforts to place the Academy upon a more useful and respectable establishment, than it has heretofore been. They have with regret seen their well meant efforts fail, for want of that support which all who wish well to the beloved offspring ought to afford.

The trustees cannot continue their efforts to sustain the Academy, without other means than those they have heretofore possessed. They would therefore respectfully represent to their fellow citizens of the town, the necessity there is of some effort on their part to enable the trustees to make such a change in the house and institution as will render them generally useful.

The form of the house is inconvenient: it is in such a state of decay as to be unfit for use, and is a discredit to the town. The institution requires certain necessary apparatus, and additional instructors. To effect these objects funds are necessary, which cannot, as experience has clearly shown, be raised solely from the price of tuition.

It is confidently believed that the trustees in making this appeal to the parental feelings and liberality of the citizens of the town, will not appear in vain, especially when they reflect, that by placing the Academy in their own town on a respectable footing, they will be relieved in a great measure from the necessity of sending their children to distant places for instruction, at a much greater expense than that at which they could be educated at home, and in too many instances at the very dear price of the loss of their moral principles.

The law incorporating the Academy declares that all persons and their respective heirs, who shall contribute 5 pounds to the use of the Academy, shall have a right to vote at all elections of trustees.

Trusting that every citizen who values the blessing of education, the good of society, and the happiness and respectability of his children, will contribute liberally towards so desirable an object, the trustees have appointed some of their own body to wait upon their fellow-citizens with a subscription paper for that purpose.

By order,
WILLIAM H. WILMER, President.

The following gentlemen constitute the Board of Trustees for the present year: Rev. Wm. H. Wilmer, Mr. Hugh Smith, Rev. Oliver Norris, George Taylor, Rev. Elias Harrison, John Janney, Hon. William Cranch, Anthony Crease, Mr. Edm. L. Lee, Thos. Vowell, Thos. Swann, and J. Hoffman, I. P. Thompson.

Public Sale.
In pursuance of a decree of the circuit court for the county of Alexandria, will be sold at auction on the thirtieth day of this month (October) on the premises for cash, that house and lot of ground on King street, formerly the residence of Wm. Newton, deceased, and now occupied by Francis A.
Newton. A. NEWTON, Commissioner. THOS. SWANN, Auctioneer.
October 1

Lexington at Public Sale.
On THURSDAY, October 15, if fair, if not, the next fair day, will be offered at public sale, on the premises, Leavington.

THIS estate, containing two thousand three hundred and fifty acres, more or less, being one half of the well known tract of land commonly called "Mason's Neck," situated on the Potomac, in the county of Fairfax, Virginia, is now offered for sale.
About two-thirds of it is covered with an uncommon heavy growth of white and hickory, hickory, pine, poplar, &c. near the water's edge, whence it may be transported to the markets of the district of Columbia.
(A distance of 30 miles only) where timber is always in demand, and without the expense and risk encountered in conveying the articles from situations further down the river; the remainder is in cultivation, and furnished with every necessary building for that purpose, together with orchards and a blacksmith's shop. The water, or improvements are a spacious and elegant dwelling-house, kitchen, barn, dairy, smoke-house, office, icehouse, a well of excellent water, and a falling garden, of the most tasteful and costly design, filled with the rarest and most beautiful shrubberies and flowers, exotic and indigenous, all situated on an eminence, commanding a view of the rest of the tract, which extends in an uninterrupted plain from the foot of the eminence to the Potomac and Occoquan, by which it is so far bounded as to render the expense of enclosing it comparatively nothing. The prospect, moreover, of the surrounding country, diversified in every direction by sheets of water, is really beautiful beyond description. There are likewise attached to this estate four valuable

Shad & Herring Fisheries: however, the subscriber intends to reserve one of them and a few acres of land.
The woods abound with deer in such numbers, that with a little care, a gentleman might command a constant supply of venison for his table; and besides the large streams above mentioned, the various creeks and inlets that every where intersect the land are covered in the proper season with wild fowl of every description known in our waters.
When to all these advantages is added the great natural fertility of the land, which is not exceeded perhaps in the western country, its adaptation to improvement by the use of plaster, its vicinity to society, in market, to two manufacturing grist-mills, to which the distance of conveyance by land and water is not more than 5 or 6 miles, it may with truth be pronounced the most valuable estate of the same extent, in the whole range of country watered by the Potomac.
It will be sold entire or divided to suit purchasers.

The terms of sale will be one-third of the purchase money in hand, the remaining 2-Sis in two equal annual payments, with interest from the day of sale, secured by a deed of trust on the land—which will be given in my absence to any person disposed to purchase, by Mr. William Mason or Mr. Weston, residing on the premises.

Clermont for Sale.
THE subscriber offers for sale this well known and valuable estate, in the vicinity of Alexandria, being distant not more than three miles, commanding a view of the town and of the valley through which the Cameron creek meanders. The domain consists of 360 acres, a large portion of which is bottom land, highly susceptible of improvement; its buildings consist of a large dwelling house containing 12 rooms, comfortable apartments and 8 fire places, and of such other buildings as are necessary for the accommodation of a farmer. This estate will be sold al together or divided to suit purchasers.
One-third of the purchase money will be required in hand, and the remainder in 2 equal payments of 9 and 18 months.

Valuable Land for Sale.
HAYING more land in the tract on which I reside than I can farm to advantage, I will expose to public sale, on the 5th day of NOVEMBER next, if fair, if not the next fair day, eight hundred acres, divided into lots of two hundred acres; each lot has seventy acres in wood, of the cleared land one hundred and fifty acres are in clover, and two hundred in rice and wheat. This land is situated ten miles below Alexandria, and is bounded north and east by Accotink creek, which separates the lower part of it from Jonathan Janney's mill, where the Alexandria price can be had for grain. It is as fertile as any land in the county, and is susceptible of improvement, by clover and plaster, as any I have seen. Persons wishing to view it will call on the subscriber, living at Cedar Grove, one mile below Janney's mill.
The terms will be one-third of the purchase money in hand, and the balance in two equal annual payments. The sale will take place at 12 o'clock on the premises.
EDGAR McCARTY.
Fairfax co. Va. October 6

Gunston for Sale.
THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria —it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Potomac creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaster acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania. I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity.
A manufacturing mill, distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain; being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole; it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outbuilding, 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach-trees, and an abundance of other choice fruit.
More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvas backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had.
The terms of sale will be accommodating.
Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the River, will be taken in payment. Letters must be addressed to me at Pollock Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.
I WILL give the above reward for apprehending and lodging in any jail in the District of Columbia, a person by the name of JOHN POST, a Bricklayer and Stonemason, who has been at work for about two months past at Fort Washington, and was discharged on the 7th of September last.
He says he was born in the State of New-York; is about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, and has sandy hair; he had with him an apprentice boy, nearly grown. A few days previous to his leaving Fort Washington he took the liberty of borrowing, in the name of Mr. John Cohen, from a lady at that place 15 dollars, which was not known till after he left it; and immediately after he was discharged, and paid off, he forged two checks in the name of the Subscriber, on the Farmers' Bank of Alexandria, a large quantity of first rate White Oak Ship Timber, which was detected and refused. Persons to his coming to Fort work again, but it is probable he has not stopped, so near the theatre of his villainy.

posed on by him. BOLLEHA LAWS.

Auction & Commission Store.

NATHL. P. BIXBY & CO. respectfully inform their friends and the public generally, that they have taken that large and commodious store formerly occupied by the late Mr. Thomas Robinson, nearly opposite the Union Bank, Bridge-st, where they will transact all kinds of business in the Auction and Commission line; and as they are determined to give their exclusive attention to that business alone, those gentlemen who are disposed to employ them, have the best guarantee that they will be fairly dealt by. They flatter themselves that a punctual, diligent, and correct attention, together with their general knowledge of business, will secure to them at least an equal share of public patronage. Their intention is to avoid, as much as possible, retailing goods at auction. They are now prepared to receive goods of every description, to sell at public or private sale, and will attend to sales of property at any place within the town.

made with India ink. She is about four months gone in a state of pregnancy—followed her husband, Jim Clark, a yellow man, who was purchased from this place and taken away in company with a large number of slaves, about two weeks ago, by a man of the name of Bassett. It is supposed they have gone to the westward; Celia was born free, and had with her a notarial certificate of her freedom, and description of her person. Her mother, the subscriber, is much afflicted by her manner of going away, and desires that any humane people who may chance to meet with her, will persuade her to return, being apprehensive that when she gets into a strange country, where she will be unknown and out of the reach of her friends and those who would be likely to protect her, attempts may be made by some avaricious and unprincipled persons, to deprive her of her liberty, and sell her for a slave. Should any such attempts be made, fifty dollars reward will be paid to any person who will communicate such information as shall lead to the conviction of the offenders, and the recovery of the woman.

PROPOSALS.
By Gideon Fairman, John Binns and Charles S. Parker,
TO PUBLISH
A Splendid Edition of Washington's Farewell Address.
To the People of the United States.

THE world has seen enough of warriors and of heroes—enough of Statesmen—of men who have guided Armies in the field, or dictated as Sages in the Cabinet, for the exclusive purpose of Ambition. History from its earliest page to the present day, has offered to our contemplation, only ONE WASHINGTON, but ONE MAN, whose dangers in war, and labors in peace, were undertaken and supported with a single eye, to the benefit of his country; whose wonderful and honorable success, was the plain result of wisdom in design, and valour in execution; whom danger never appalled, nor defeat depressed; who, persevering in the justice of his cause, won Victory till he won her; who conquered no reward but the well earned approbation of those whose interest he lived to promote; who renounced all public honors, when they ceased to be the necessary instruments of good to the people, whose gratitude conferred them; who superior to all Monarchs, was content to be called the Philadelphia, July 31.

American Citizen. His career of glory through life was sustained by courage; and his death was felt as a loss by every individual of that community, whose political existence was the fruit of his exertions.

THE FAREWELL ADDRESS of General Washington is the condensed result of long experience, matured reflection and strong anxiety for the permanent prosperity of his country. His advice concerning the great importance of maintaining indissolubly the Federal Union; the danger of indig-ning too much in party feelings;— the necessity of supporting public credit at home—of maintaining public faith in all our transactions with foreign nations; of encouraging foreign intercourse free from foreign attachments—are so many lessons of prudence which we should do well to bear in constant remembrance. Why therefore should not his legacy of wisdom and affection, be so published, as to admit of being constantly before our eyes? An ornament to our apartments, while it serves as a memento to guide our public feelings, and to manifest that the author lives in our memories?

To make it such, is the aim of the proposed Edition.
The Publishers are determined that the Address shall be printed on paper of the same quality and size as the splendid edition of the Declaration of Independence now engraving, & shall in all respects be a companion worthy that great State paper.

As errors are known from various causes to find their way into the most important writings, the publishers feel it their duty, not only to satisfy themselves, but to satisfy the public, of the authenticity of the copy from which this splendid Edition of the Farewell Address shall be published.

Mr. GEORGE BARNUM will complete the Design; of which the following is an outline:—The introductory part of the Address, in highly finished ornamental penmanship, shall form the upper part;—the other parts of the plate, shall be appropriate ornaments;—in the centre below shall be engraved, from an historical design for this publication by Mr. Sully the Surrender of the British Army at Yorktown, October 19, 1781.

The Address itself shall be printed with type of a peculiar and appropriate character, designed for this purpose by Mr. Fairman, and to be cut and cast by our best artists. No more of the type shall be cast than will be necessary to execute this Address; & when it shall be completed, the type and the matrices in which it was cast shall be utterly destroyed; so that no other work shall ever be executed by the same letter which shall have printed the "FAREWELL ADDRESS" of him who lived and died, first in War; first in Peace, and first in the hearts of his Countrymen.

The paper, of the first quality, 36 by 26 inches, will be made by Mr.
Amies. The type shall be carefully prepared, and of the best materials.
The signature of General Washington from which it is proposed to execute a fac simile for this publication, is that which he affixed to the Constitution of the United States, when he signed it as President of the Convention in which it was framed; Thus associating and concentrating some of the greatest events in the life of this great man and in the history of his Country.

The ornamental writing will be designed and executed in the very best manner; the ornamental parts of the design and vignette, will be engraved by G. FAIRMAN; and the Typographical part executed by John Binns.
They will take especial care of the execution of their several duties in this respect, and they will call to their aid, all that liberality, zeal and industry can command from the Sciences and Arts, so as to make the "Farewell Address" no mean specimen of the state of the Fine Arts in the United States.

As much progress has already been made in designing and procuring materials for this splendid edition of Gen. Washington's "Farewell Address," it is expected it will be ready for delivery, with the Splendid Edition of the Declaration of Independence, in the month of December next.
That the public may have a more perfect view of the design and style of execution, than can be given in a proposal, of this Tribute to the memory of him who was a Conqueror for the Freedom of his Country! A "Legislator for its Security! A "Magistrate for its Happiness," it is not intended to solicit any Subscriptions until the Ornamental parts of the plate shall be executed. It will then be submitted for public inspection and public patronage, at five dollars a Copy, payable on the delivery of the Engraving. Philadelphia, July 31.

A reward of 10 dollars will be given if taken in the town or county, 20 in the county of Washington or Fairfax, or the above reward if taken 50 miles from town, with all reasonable charges if brought home.
Masters of vessels are cautioned against harboring or carrying off said runaway; as they will be dealt with according to law.
